● ● ● JOB OPENING AT SHADY OAKS CAMP ● ● ●

Shady Oaks is looking for a live-in camp caretaker to start immediately! The caretaker must live on the grounds in the house provided. Responsibilities include, but are not limited to, equipment, vehicle, and building maintenance and repair, grounds keeping, janitorial, plumbing, electrical, carpentry, and other duties as assigned by the Maintenance Committee.

This is a full-time job that requires on-call availability. Applicant should be self-motivated and responsible with basic understanding of technology (email, YouTube, Internet, etc.). Applicant must also be in good health with the ability to perform all duties of the job, including gutter cleaning, mowing, lifting, etc.). Benefits include home with utilities, stipend, and meals during the summer!

Friendly reminder: Our organizational name change went in to effect a few months ago. If you apply for matching grants through your company or look for us in not for profit data bases we should no longer be listed as Parents Association for Cerebral Palsy Children and Adults, Inc. Our new official name is Shady Oaks Camp for People with Disabilities. We are also doing business as Shady Oaks Camp. Our EIN Number s still the same 36-2182090. If you come across us still listed as the Parents Association somewhere, please let us know. Thanks!!!!

Camp Clean Up Day

Thank you to everyone who came out to the Christ Community Church's camp clean up day. We had over 50 people volunteer their time and a lot of pre-camp work was accomplished!

Thank you again to Kim and Jeff Mlyniec for organizing the day's activities. Thanks to Shane from Shane's Lawn Ranger LLC. for bringing out his mower to cut grass and to Tom Iwema for stripping and waxing the floor in dorm 13. :)

Excelon Clean Up Day

Thank you to the fine folks from Excelon who came out to camp to volunteer. Raking leaves, painting decks and doing laundry - they did it all

Fashion Show

We wanted to thank the Lockport Woman's Club and the Homer Glen Junior Women's Club for choosing SOC as the beneficiary of their fashion show fundraiser. Not only did they raise over $5000.00 for camp, but they also collected tons of supplies! Thank you to all the donors, attendees and everyone involved in making this a successful fundraiser. Your support means so much to us.
